The better securing of the Tenant Right Custom in the Province of Ulster.

A.D. 1880.

WHEREAS it is expedient to secure more effectually the usages prevalent in the province of Ulster which are known and included under the denomination of the Ulster tenant right custom, and the legality of which was established by the Landlord and Tenant (Ireland) Act, 1870:

Assumption by court of Ulster tenant right custom.

2. Whenever on the hearing of any such land claim it shall have been either proved or admitted that the Ulster tenant right custom prevails upon any particular estate situate in the province of Ulster, and that such custom has been subjected on said estate to any so-called "estate office rule" fixing an arbitrary price per acre, or a certain determined number of years purchase, to be paid to an outgoing tenant on said estate for the tenant right of his
